

At the heart of our vision is the desire to build bridges and build family. This resource is intended to be a tool that would help facilitate you, the spiritual leader of your family, to grow and develop your children in the fear and admonition of the Lord. While not exhaustive, our prayer is that it would give you a place to start in effort to better steward your role as mom or dad.

What follows is a four-day devotional that loosely follows our Sunday sermon series. It includes a passage to read, a prompt or two to discuss together, and a prayer to offer in response to your time. These efforts are simply offered as helpful direction. Feel the freedom to adjust, shift, or redirect the focus as best fits the few moments you take with your kids before bedtime, after dinner, or whenever you choose to lead them in God's Word.

Day 1

Passage: Read Hebrews 12:18-21

Younger Prompt: What does this section say we have NOT come to? What experience is the author speaking of? See Exodus 19:16-20, 20:18, and Deut. 4:11-12 for reference.

Older Prompt: What about the experience described would cause fear? Why does the author say his audience has not come to this experience?

Pray: Lord, thank you for bringing us to a gracious and merciful encounter with you through your Son.

Day 2

Passage: Read Hebrews 12:22-24

Younger Prompt: What mountain does the author say we have come? What other things does this section say we've come to?

Older Prompt: As you compare Mount Sinai (vs. 18-21) and Zion (22-24), which one sounds better? Why?

Pray: Lord, thank you for all we have in your Son. Thank you for the better hope that is in Jesus and the work accomplished on the cross.

Day 3

Passage: Read Hebrews 12:25-29

Younger Prompt: What shook when God spoke at Sinai? What will shake in the future? What will be removed and what will remain? What should our response be to all this (vs. 28-29)?

Older Prompt: Is God still wrathful? How ought this motivate our walk with Him? What does "acceptable worship" mean?

Pray: Lord, remind us that you are a consuming fire. Help us to show our love and devotion to you as we worship you in obedience.

Day 4

Passage: Hebrews 13:1-5

Younger Prompt: What six things are listed in this section that we are commanded to do? Are there any that need explaining?

Older Prompt: Of the six topics the author gives that we ought to obey, which one is hardest for you? What steps can you take to honor the Lord more fully in that area?

Pray: Lord, give us strength from your Spirit to take steps to worship you more fully in reverence and awe. Show us the areas we need to grow in and give us the faith to walk obediently in them.
