

At the heart of our vision is the desire to build bridges and build family. This resource is intended to be a tool that would help facilitate you, the spiritual leader of your family, to grow and develop your children in the fear and admonition of the Lord. While not exhaustive, our prayer is that it would give you a place to start in effort to better steward your role as mom or dad.

What follows is a four-day devotional that loosely follows our Sunday sermon series. It includes a passage to read, a prompt or two to discuss together, and a prayer to offer in response to your time. These efforts are simply offered as helpful direction. Feel the freedom to adjust, shift, or redirect the focus as best fits the few moments you take with your kids before bedtime, after dinner, or whenever you choose to lead them in God's Word.

Day 1

Passage: Read Hebrews 13:7

Younger Prompt: What does vs. 7 say we are to do in regards to our leaders? What do these leaders do, specifically?

Older Prompt: Why is it important to have good leaders that we can imitate? Why is it especially important to have good spiritual leaders? Who are yours?

Pray: Lord, thank you for our spiritual leaders. Help us to pray for them, consider them, and follow their Godly example.

Day 2

Passage: Read Hebrews 13:8-9

Younger Prompt: Does Jesus and His ways ever change? What strange things does the author point out in this passage that have no use?

Older Prompt: What are some of the things people may want to change about Jesus and His teachings today?

Pray: Lord, keep us grounded in your grace and Truth. May we not be led astray. Thank you for giving us your Word so that we can know what is true and what is not.

Day 3

Passage: Read Hebrews 13:17

Younger Prompt: Who does this verse say we are to obey? What is their job, according to this passage?

Older Prompt: How does our attitude effect the way our leaders honor God as they keep watch over the church?

Pray: Lord, help us to humbly submit to our leaders whom you've placed over us. Help us to honor them joyfully so that they are free to serve with joy, that it might be of advantage to us.

Day 4

Passage: Hebrews 13:20-21

Younger Prompt: How is God described in this closing prayer? What is the specific request of the author in this prayer (vs. 21)?

Older Prompt: How does the author's prayer reveal his hopes for God's equipping of us? Who's will are we called to obey? (hint: It isn't our own). To whose glory are we to live for?

Pray: Close praying this specific prayer recorded in vs. 20-21 together.
